DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

This application contains more than one species of the generic invention. These species are deemed to lack unity of invention because they are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

The species are as follows:

Species A, one embodiment, illustrated with reference to Figure 1 and Specification pages 4-5, drawn to a display (4) featuring an asymmetric light emitting structure (collectively 6) comprising a light emitting layer (14) and electrodes (12 and 16).

Species B, another embodiment, illustrated with reference to Figure 2A and Specification pages 5-7, drawn to a display (4) featuring an asymmetric light emitting structure (collectively 6) comprising an organic light emitting diode layer ("OLED"), electrodes (12 and 16), a planarizing layer (18) and vertical cavity laser structure (20)( Red Laser, Green Laser and Blue Laser).

Species C, a second embodiment, illustrated with reference to Figure 3 and Specification page 7, drawn to a display (4) featuring an asymmetric light emitting structure comprising OLED layer 17, electrodes 12 and 16, and vertical microcavity laser elements (20) having a variety of colors as illustrated that when combined form a white polarized light. Said display (4) also includes color filters (34) to aid in the formation of the vertical microcavity laser elements (20).

Species D, another embodiment, illustrated with reference to Figure 4 and Specification at least pages 7 and 8, drawn to a display (4) featuring an asymmetric light emitting structure (17) comprised of Red OLED, Green OLED and Blue OLED, electrodes 12 and 16, and vertical cavity laser structures (20) that emit colored polarized light (7).

Species E, another embodiment, illustrated with reference to Figure 6, and Specification at least pages 12 and 13, drawn to a display (4) now having only a two-stage structure as shown and comprising a light emitting layer (6) of a periodic grating structure (see elements 12, 14 and 16 of Figure 6).

Applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single species to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. The reply must also identify the claims readable on the elected species, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered non-responsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

The species listed above do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, the species lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons:

The nature of the asymmetric light emitting structure varies as above indicated with respect to the Figures and descriptions within Applicant's Specification.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
